

Brahms Requiem

presented by the St. Bartholomew Choir and friends
with chamber orchestra

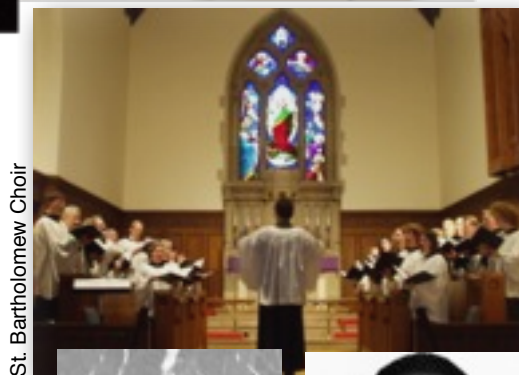

Sunday, October 28
5:00 p.m.

Now beginning its eighth year, Music at St. Bartholomew's has been presenting bi-annual choral events with chamber orchestra, and this is arguably the most ambitious yet. Joined by singers from the community, the St. Bartholomew Choir will perform Brahms' monumental Ein deutsches Requiem (A German Requiem). Also joining in the performance will be guest soloists Janice Chandler-Eteme, soprano, and Robert Cantrell, bass.

Johannes Brahms composed this work between 1865 and 1868. The death of his mother in early 1865 is widely believed to have been the primary inspiration. Throughout the more than 150 years since, Brahms' German Requiem has maintained a prominent place among major choral works.

No admission will be charged for the concert. Events like this depend on the generosity of supporters from the parish and community.
